

Burglar Talks Himself Into Arrest, Much Loot Discovered In Room

Mystery of Robberies Solved After
Three Years of Crime in Pass
Towns—Had "Black Jack"
Among Possessions

Breaking into stores by night over a period of three years, while holding a job at McGillivray mine company tipple, and keeping on good terms with everyone, including the police who were non-pulsed as to who was committing the robberies, Herbert Henderson, aged 23 years, whose home address was Hillcrest, and for three weeks prior to his arrest on October 23, was a boarder at the Empire hotel, Coleman, and in Lethbridge jail awaiting trial on October 27, following his remand by Magistrate Gresham, of Blairmore.

Over a score of stores in the Pass towns in Alberta and British Columbia, it is alleged have been burglarized by this plausible young man, as evidenced by the goods found in his possession, of which a considerable quantity were found in his room concealed in a trunk and other receptacles. It is suspected that he has another cache in the district, and efforts are being made to discover it.

Included in his possessions was a "black jack" loaded with shot, while the goods included items of every line of merchandise, such as groceries, tobacco and cigarettes, shirts, small hardware, jewelry, photographic films, batteries, fishing tackle, and many other articles. When laid out in the police office in Coleman, there appeared sufficient stock to open a small store, and it is surmised there is still a quantity yet undiscovered.

The accused drove an Essex coupe, so that his means of transit was comparatively easy. Included in robberies attributed to this modern "Charles Peace" is the theft of about $700.00 worth of liquor from the "Governor" store in Coleman early this year, with which it is alleged, from enquiries, that he entertained a number of friends at Lethbridge.

Burglaries by the accused mystified the police, despite the vigilance of R.C.M.P. and local officials, and in place of Henderson being suspected, the thefts were attributed to others who had on previous occasions been convicted for similar offences. To throw the police off the scent, he would keep on friendly terms with them, and in some of the Pass towns this was so apparent that he was suspected of being a "stool pigeon". His undoing came when he called up the police and said he believed he could help them to track down the thieves. He told of having seen two men walking down the main street of Coleman in the early hours of the morning following a burglary at Coleman Trading Co. store, and that they had plates on their heels, as he heard them clicking on the concrete sidewalk. Investigation of the premises showed a foot print with a rubber heel on a butcher's cutting block which had been made by someone breaking in a rear window and stepping on the block. The readiness with which Henderson volunteered his information to the police aroused the suspicions of Constable Houghton, and after consultation with Corporal Cawsey of the R.C.M.P., Blairmore, a search warrant was obtained and Henderson's room at the Empire hotel was found to be the hiding place for a large quantity of stolen goods.

Included in the assortment was a mail bag showing by the label intact in the bag that it had been sent from Regina to Hillcrest in 1930.

Among the robberies traced to him is that of G. R. Powell's jewelry store, Coleman, nearly two years ago. This store was entered by cutting away around the lock of the front door, in a portion of the town most frequented throughout the 24 hours. Other stores of which proof is shown of his having entered, are Coleman Hardware Co., Rushton's Grocery store, Coleman Trading Co., Burnett & Cruickshank, of Hillcrest, Coleman hardware liquor store, and stores in Blairmore.

Enquiries reveal that some of the stolen goods were sold to friends under the guise that he had purchased them from travellers samples. One acquaintance whom he learned of, was told that he (Henderson) was contemplating purchasing a pair of boots, and would get much cheaper for him, as he knew a traveller. Henderson not only supplied the boots, but threw in two or three other articles of gentlemen's wearing apparel as well. Had he not been so ready with information in his pretended efforts to assist the police, he may have continued his prowling and burglaries indefinitely. It is reported that his parents are respected residents of the district, which occasions all the more surprise that he should have chosen the role of a common burglar to augment his wages as a mine worker.

BASKETBALL CLUB DANCE

Coleman Basketball Club are holding their first dance of the season at the Community hall on Friday, October 27, at 9 p.m. The Arcadians will be in attendance and the boys and girls are hoping for a good turnout to give them a start in their season's activities. Basketball is becoming increasingly popular throughout the Pass and if pending arrangements are carried through, the proposed C.N.P. basketball league is formed, fans are assured of many thrilling games this winter.

Turn out and have a good time, incidentally sending the hoopers off to a flying start.

BOWLING NOTES

P. Rinaldi with the highest score in the five pin competition, won the Shamrock ham. For the month of October, a pair of men's shoes will be the prize for the highest score. Cranbrook is sending a team down to compete against P. Rinaldi, Henry Zak, Ed. Ledieu, Mr. Destobel and another player.

IS YOUR NAME ON THE VOTERS' LIST?

If you are a qualified voter for the municipal elections in February, 1934, to enable you to poll your vote your name must be registered with the town secretary by personal application before October 31. Several voters were not allowed at the last town election because of non-registration. Husbands should see that their wives make personal application in accordance with the notice advertised a few weeks ago in The Journal. DO IT NOW!

The local branch of St. John Ambulance will hold a smoker in the Knights of Pythias hall on Saturday evening at 8 p.m. All who can do so are urged to buy tickets as the branch performs a most useful service and the members give much of their time to qualify in First Aid. John M. Rushton is the faithful secretary, having carried on for several years in this good work for the community.

Joe Rinaldi of the Motordrome was a business visitor to Lethbridge on Tuesday.

A MEETING to which the public are invited will be held in the COUNCIL CHAMBER on WEDNESDAY, NOV 1, to receive the report of the Relief Committee and to reorganize for the coming winter. Citizens who are desirous of helping and that should include all are urged to attend.

J. NAYLOR, Chairman.
ARTHUR E. GRAHAM, Secretary

LOCAL AND GENERAL

Good prizes are being offered for the whit drive to be held in St. Alban's parish hall on Monday, November 6. The ladies' first prize is a silver cream and sugar set, and the gentlemen's first a $6.00 pair of shoes. Other good prizes are to be awarded, and they will be displayed in the window of Rushton's grocery store.

A. M. Morrison and R. F. Barnes motored to Calgary on Friday, and were delayed in reaching Coleman by the heavy snowfall of Sunday and Monday. Though attempting to reach here Monday, they were unable to get through, and were pulled twice out of snowdrifts. The C.P.R. trains maintained their regular schedules.

Coleman store-keepers and business men are reminded that all classes of printed matter, including counter check books, may be obtained at lowest current prices at The Journal office. Local workmen spend the money they earn with those who purchase their printed matter here, and it is mutually good business to encourage home industry.

John Williamson, for nearly two years book-keeper at the Bank of Commerce, has been transferred to Pincher Creek, and the hockey club has lost an efficient secretary. L. M. Johnson, of Medicine Hat, has been appointed to the local office. Coleman young people were sorry to see John leave, as he was a willing helper in local activities, and his merry laugh was a good tonic to young and old.

A very impressive service for Boy Scouts, Girl Guides, Cubs, Brownies and C.G.I.T. girls was held in the Anglican cathedral in Calgary on Sunday morning. Dean Ragg gave an inspiring sermon on "Duty," drawing lessons from the life of Lord Nelson and the Battle of Trafalgar to impress on the large congregation the value which the famous admiral placed on duty, from the highest to the lowest ranks. The flags of the various troops of young people's organizations were carried through the nave of the cathedral and during the service remained on each side of the altar.

A meeting of representatives of the Canadian Legion, the various local organizations and the churches will shortly be called to arrange the Remembrance Day program, which will be held in the community hall on Saturday, November 11. There should be a big attendance at the memorial service, and the stage will be appropriately set in keeping with the occasion. A service of one hour's duration will be held, probably from 10 to 11 a.m., the latter hour being that at which hostilities ceased on November 11, 1918, after more than four years of the most devastating war in the history of the world. All members of the Legion are urged to take part and also assist the committee in preparing the hall.

Remembrance Day Saturday, Nov. 11

A meeting to organize committees will be held on TUESDAY, OCT. 31 at 7:30 p.m. in the Council Chamber or if that is not available, in The Journal office.
Lt. Col. R. F. BARNES,
Sec.-Treas., Coleman Branch
Canadian Legion, B.E.S.I.

MUSICAL FESTIVAL

Blairmore musical festival is attracting large numbers of people from the Pass towns, and a special train from Cranbrook will come down early on Saturday bringing competitors and others from that town. Coleman is well represented in the program this year, among those taking part being Freda Antros, Foss Boulton, Rudolf D'Amico, David C. Jones, Lauree Ant, Vernon Brown, Olwen Brown, Coleman school orchestra, with Miss May Powell conducting; John Pietraszko, Coleman Citizens Band, with Mr. Alex. Easton conducting; Unice Johnson, Tony DeCocco, Winona Taylor, Fred Blazenko, Olga Belevich, Elizabeth Moores, Mrs. Clifford, Tom Hill and Roy Taylor. To enable school children to attend, holidays are being given on Thursday and Friday. Cranbrook has an exceptionally large representation of adults and younger people, and Cranbrook Anglican church choir of 20 voices under Mr. A. E. Turner is entered, also the city orchestra. On Friday evening Mayor Pattinson, of Coleman, will be chairman. L. I. Morgan, president of the association, will preside on Thursday evening, and Mayor Allison, of Pincher Creek on Saturday evening.

NO DEPARTURE FROM RATES
It is pointed out that the rental for the community hall (formerly known as the opera house) are based on the cost of operation. The committee asks The Journal to point out that no departure can be made from the scheduled rates, also that their object in securing this property for the use of the citizens was solely to provide facilities for large community gatherings which were impossible with the limited accommodation previously existing. No profit is made and the only way in which the hall can be successfully operated is by various organizations co-operating with the committee in making a community success of the venture.

LEDIEU'S STORE HEADED LIST OF SWIFT'S PURCHASES

The following is self-explanatory, being a letter from Swift-Canadian Co. to E. Ledieu:
During our 25th anniversary celebrations we set aside Wednesday, Sept. 27, as "Retailers' Day" and invited retailers to send or bring into us their oldest bill for Swift products, also bills with the greatest number of items, regardless of date.
After checking over the large number of competitors, we find that you were the winner of the prize offered for the bill containing the largest number of items, which is a credit memorandum of $10.
We appreciate not only your order which covered a wide variety of products, but also the interest taken by you in this competition.—Yours truly, Manager's Office, Swift Canadian Co.

Born—To Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Park, October 21st, a son.

Born—To Mr. and Mrs. E. Bernard, of Lethbridge, a son. Mrs. Bernard was formerly Miss Phamie Fraser, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. Fraser of Coleman. Mrs. Fraser spent the week-end at Lethbridge, and was accompanied by Mrs. Brennan Sr., who will remain there for the present.

ST. ALBAN'S CHURCH

Next Sunday is the 29th after Trinity. The services will be: 11:15 a.m. morning prayer and address; 12:30 p.m., Sunday school.

Funeral Service Mrs. Rypien Oct. 18 at Holy Ghost Church

The funeral of Mrs. Victoria Rypien, wife of Mike Rypien, was held on October 18, service being in the Holy Ghost church. Rev. Father J. T. Dunbar officiating, and the body was laid to rest in the Catholic cemetery. The Polish society and other organizations were represented in the funeral procession, many turning out despite the cold, snowy weather. The pall-bearers were Messrs. Hatela, Kubica, Simla, Kwansey, Warmas and Cerlak.

Her death occurred in Coleman hospital on Oct. 14 following a long illness. Her maiden name was Victoria Kumorek, and she was born in Poland, where her mother still lives. She married in the States. Besides the husband, five children, the youngest being 11 years, mourn her death. Mrs. Julia Konior of Athabasca and Mrs. Staffie Biela of Coleman are sisters, and John and Mike Kumorek, brothers, are living in Poland, in which country deceased attended school. She came with her husband to this district in 1911, and was therefore well-known among the older residents of the Pass, who regret to hear of her death.

Floral tributes were sent by the following: Sisters, Mrs. J. Cassidy, Mrs. F. Barrington, F. G. Graham, Mrs. J. Michalsky, John Pedouk, Mrs. T. Rypien, Mrs. S. Woyteka, Mrs. Tiberghien, Polish Society, Ed. Churla, Chas. Nicholas, Society P.S.P.S.

CARD OF THANKS

Mr. M. Rypien and family desire to thank all who sent flowers or loaned cars for the funeral, and to the doctors and nurses for their kind services.

The Women's Missionary Society of the United Church presented the two plays, recently staged here, to Bellevue on Monday evening.

McGillivray Co. Experimenting With View to Installing Wet Washer

Claimed to Be More Efficient Than Air Process of Cleaning Foreign Material From Coal

Dryers have been installed at McGillivray Creek Coal & Coke Co.'s tipple as an experiment to ascertain the cost of drying coal, with a view to installing what is termed a wet washing or cleaning plant, providing the experiment shows that economy can be effected as against the present method of cleaning coal by air pressure.

G. Kellock, vice-president of McGillivray Co., states that wet cleaning, or separating of impurities from coal, particularly rock, can be more efficiently done by the wet or flotation process, but the low temperatures of the winter were a handicap. It was for this reason that the air or dry cleaning process was developed for the mines in this area.

The dryer recently installed was imported from Manchester, England. The company has also installed two boilers purchased from the city of Lethbridge to replace two marine and three return tubular boilers, bringing its steam plant to its former capacity whereby it is enabled to carry a capacity load if required without being dependent on power from other sources.

MINERS APPOINT DELEGATION

At the meeting Sunday of Coleman Miners Association a committee including J. Atkinson and W. Chapman were appointed to meet with other organizations in town to confer as to the operation of Coleman Community Hall, taken over from the M. W. U. of A.

Western Shippers Should Be Alike To Advantages Of Northern Sea Port

Saskatoon, Sask.—Assisted development of the Hudson Bay route will be continued next year by the Federal Government and plans are in process already for increased trade through Churchill during the 1934 shipping season.

Appreciable exports of cattle, grain, lumber and other goods, probably butter and livestock products, are expected by the federal department of Trade and Commerce.

According to present plans the department will assist shipment of western cattle to Great Britain by arranging for the supply of a number of properly equipped vessels.

Satisfactory test of the northern seaway for this type of shipping has just been completed with the arrival of 200 head of cattle in England. In order to accomplish this, the government defrayed the cost of fitting out the S.S. Brandon with cattle stalls, even though the expenditure amounted to approximately $20 per head.

To encourage more shipments of this nature next year, the department of trade and commerce hopes to be able to fit out a number of vessels at Churchill next year.

All this was revealed here Sunday by Hon. H. H. Stevens, Minister of Trade and Commerce, who spent the day in Saskatoon on his way to Edmonton.

Aside from his interview of government plans for development of the bay route, Mr. Stevens attacked the apathy of western businessmen toward their $50,000,000 "baby."

"The government can help," he said, "but it cannot make the route a success if western businessmen are going to remain apathetic. The government has furnished the port and facilities and has done its utmost to encourage and assist trade, but co-operation is vital."

It was true that the shipping season out of Churchill was short, but business people could maintain a steady flow of cargoes in and out of the port during that period by synchronizing their orders. No end of shipments could be arranged for August and September delivery.

Boards of trade and other organizations interested in the Churchill trade could accomplish more by attempting to drum up business than by passing resolutions.

Mr. Stevens pointed out that his department had great difficulty in securing even 200 head of cattle for the test shipment just completed. The minister considered that the Hudson Bay had reached England in first-class condition and western exporters should be alive now to the advantages of shipping cattle to England in this manner.

Questions regarding the late seasonal opening of the route—no ship being permitted to enter the Hudson Straits before August 10—Mr. Stevens admitted that the time for opening might be advanced as experience in navigating the bay increased. This might be influenced, too, by ice conditions each season as reported on by government stations along the northern route.

United States Farmers Issue A National Farm Strike Call

St. Paul, Minn.—The United States farm revolt, apparently inspired by Governor William Langer's wheat embargo proclamation, flared anew with the National Farm Holiday Association issuing a national farm strike call.

A secret meeting of directors of the association drafted the proclamation which laid down the following ultimatum:

"We will pay no taxes or interest until we have first cared for our families."

"We will pay no interest-bearing debts until we receive the cost of production."

"We will buy only that which is completely necessary demands."

"We will stay in the homes which we now occupy."

"We will not sell our products unless we receive the cost of production but will exchange our products with labor and the unemployed for the things we need on the farm, on the basis of cost of production for both parties."

"The directors decreed that the strike 'will remain in operation until

Motor Car Of Future

Radical Departure From Conventional Lines Is Predicted

Toronto, Ont.—The motor car of the future will have three wheels, two at the front and one at the rear. The motor will also be at the rear, according to Frank S. Spring, of Detroit, in discussing transportation of the future before the Canadian section, Society of Automotive Engineers here.

It was not possible to design a perfectly stream-lined car with four wheels, he said. Another revolution in design would be the placing of the two front wheels outside the body proper. Cutting down wind resistance depended upon reducing the frontal area of a car and this could not be done if the wheels had to be included in the front width of the body design.

He predicted engineers would soon have a car that could take off and fly.

Visits Downing Street

Lindbergh Calls At Residence Of Ramsay MacDonald

London, Eng.—The mystery surrounding the visit of Colonel and Mrs. Charles A. Lindbergh to England reached Downing Street when the aviator walked arm-in-arm from Prime Minister Ramsay MacDonald's official residence with J. H. Thomas, the Dominions Secretary.

It was understood Mr. Thomas met Lindbergh at a hotel and took him to No. 10, where they remained 20 minutes.

Downing Street secretaries said they knew nothing of a meeting between the premier and the aviator and pointed out the prime minister was engaged in a committee session.

This was the first report of Lindbergh's whereabouts since he inspected Croydon airport after his arrival recently with Mrs. Lindbergh from an air tour of northern European and Atlantic countries.

Gasoline Sales Higher

Regarded At Ottawa As Sign Of General Activity

Ottawa, Ont.—Sales of gasoline in Canada in July this year exceeded June and were also higher than in July of last year, reports issued by the Dominion Bureau of Statistics revealed. The amount of gasoline consumed is generally regarded as an indication of general activity.

Sales of gasoline in Canada during July advanced to 56,400,000 gallons from the preceding month's total of 49,293,000 gallons and the July, 1932, sales of 51,551,000 gallons. Imports of natural casinghead gasoline into Canada during July amounted to 3,619,847 gallons valued at $80,749 as compared with 3,876,771 gallons worth $151,684 imported in June. Gasoline lighter than 82.35 specific gravity at 60 degrees temperature imported in July totalled 857,610 gallons appraised at $92,495.

Central Manitoba Mines President Dies Suddenly

Suffers Heart Attack On Train En Route To Toronto

Winnipeg, Man.—En route to his home in Toronto, A. D. Miles, president of Central Manitoba Mines Limited and a former managing director of the International Nickel Company, died aboard a Canadian Pacific Railway train October 17.

Stricken with a heart attack, Mr. Miles was dead when medical aid was obtained at Whittemore, Man. He had appeared in excellent health when he left here early in the evening, associates said.

For many years Mr. Miles had been associated with mining and industrial enterprises in eastern Canada. Mrs. Miles, living in Toronto, survives.

He was born in Allentown, Pa., educated in New York City and at New York and Yale Universities. After taking his B.Ph. degree at Yale, he became instructor in chemistry, geology and mineralogy there.

In 1905 Mr. Miles relinquished tutorial work to engage in mining activities. He was a former president of the Ontario Mining Association.

Edmonton-Jasper Highway

Proposal Made To Complete All-Weather Road

Edmonton, Alberta—A proposal which will mean completion of an all-weather highway from Edmonton to Jasper has been made to the Dominion by the provincial government.

This announcement was made recently by Hon. O. L. McPherson, Minister of Public Works.

The offer is that the province is prepared to supply equipment for federal gravel camps along the highway this winter if the Dominion will give assurance that it will place the 37 miles of grade east of the park boundary in shape to receive gravel as soon as weather conditions permit next year.

Convention Of Veterans

Five Organizations Plan To Hold Meetings In Ottawa

Ottawa, Ont.—Five of the large veterans' organizations will hold their Dominion conventions in Ottawa during the next session of parliament if the recommendations emerging from a meeting of the associated veterans are approved by the executives of the individual groups. The conventions will be held at the same time.

Meanwhile agreement was reached that no official comment on, or criticism of the new Canadian Pension commission should be made pending the assembling of the convention.

Trapped In Oil Truck

Spectacular Highway Accident Causes Death Of Two Men

Santa Barbara, Cal.—Two men were burned to death in a spectacular highway accident near Las Cruces, 35 miles north of here as the giant oil tanker and trailer they were driving plunged off the road and caught fire. The men, Harry Warren, 35, of Los Angeles, the other unidentified, were trapped in the cab of the truck as it rolled down a 200-foot mountainside and burst into flame, starting a brush fire that was brought under control only after several hours of fire fighting by county crews and pumper trucks.

A SCENE FROM THE SENSATIONAL REICHSTAG TRIAL

One of the most sensational trials of modern times, that of the five men accused of being concerned in the burning down of the Reichstag at Leipzig, Germany. The central figure, Martinus Van der Lubbe, the young Dutchman, who caused a sensation by his insane laughter, hunger strike and "confession," is shown in the picture standing with his wrists manacled while being questioned by the court.

Germany Demands Equality

Chancellor Hitler Says His Country Will Not Be Treated As Second Class Nation

Berlin, Germany—Chancellor Hitler proclaimed that Germany will participate in no conference or agree to no convention "as long as she is not treated as an equal."

As if to still reports abroad that the reich may return to the disarmament conference and the League of Nations, the chancellor in a speech to his followers maintained:

"Germany is determined in the future to attend no conference, enter no league, agree to no convention, and sign nothing as long as she is not treated as an equal."

He bid for the co-operation of his enemies at home and issued a slogan for the reichstag election campaign the sentence, "We simply refuse to be treated as a second class nation!"

Wheat At Church

2,400,000 Bushels To Be Stored At Northern Port This Winter

Churchill, Man.—First shipment of wheat for winter storage in the government elevator here is nearing this northern port over the Hudson Bay Railway. Coming from Saskatchewan, the grain will be stored in readiness for the 1934 opening of navigation.

More than 500,000 bushels were en route to the port and when shipments from the prairies cease at freeze-up the elevator will be loaded to capacity with a total of 2,400,000 bushels.

The wheat is being stored by the Saskatchewan wheat pool. Storage rates have been reduced from four cents to one cent a bushel. The new rate came in to force on October 16 and continues until August 31, 1934.

Labor Party Gains In Norway

Recent Elections Give Them Twenty-Two New Seats

Oslo, Norway.—A platform of unemployment relief and opposition disparity had carried the Labor Party to big gains in the Norwegian political picture.

Labor emerged from the elections in which 18 parties competed for votes with 22 new seats in parliament and a total of 69.

Conservatives, who lost 10 seats retained 31; the Liberals, losing nine, 24; and the Agrarians, losing three, 22.

Russia Accepts Offer Of U. S. To Pave Way For Recognition

Holland Importing Nickel

Speculation At Ottawa As To Whether Germany Gets It

Ottawa, Ont.—Speculation over the large shipments of Canadian Nickel to the Netherlands and whether it is finding its way to Germany for armament manufacture, has been aroused by export figures for the first six months of the year.

The Netherlands, through the port of Rotterdam, has taken six times as much Canadian Nickel in oxide and three times as much fine nickel in the first six months of 1933 as in the corresponding period in 1932, according to figures of the Dominion Bureau of Statistics. Rotterdam is a port used extensively by German imports.

There is no word here of governmental action to curb the nickel export trade although it is realized that Canadian nickel is going directly into the production of the weapons with which a European war now appearing to be so near will be fought.

Europe is arming with furious speed and one of the essential means to arm is coming from Canadian mines. Cabinet ministers and senior government officials here decline to comment on the new development. It is explained that so far the purchase of nickel have been carried on by private companies without known governmental assistance.

Conscience Money

Federal Arbitrator Returns $25 To Dominion Treasury

Toronto, Ont.—In a special despatch from its Ottawa correspondent, The Mail and Empire tells of a former federal arbitrator from Winnipeg who returned $25 to the Dominion treasury, explaining the money was a fee received some years ago for acting on an arbitration board.

According to the newspaper, the man declared he had taken no time off from his job when he acted as arbitrator and therefore he now desired to return the fee as his acceptance of it did not harmonize with the teachings of the Oxford group which he had just joined.

Enforcing Blue Eagle Laws

President Roosevelt Issues Order Covering Compliance With Regulations

Washington.—A two-edged executive order designed to force compliance with the blue eagle provisions of the presidential agreement was issued by President Roosevelt.

The order called for a fine of $500 and six months' imprisonment for any person falsely representing himself to be operating under the agreement or displaying the blue eagle insignia while not complying with its provisions.

The president's order, issued under specific authority of the industrial law, also authorized Hugh S. Johnson, the recovery administrator, to prescribe further rules amplifying those laid down by the chief executive.

Utterly Against War

Washington.—President Roosevelt said in an address to the nation that no threat to world peace emanates from the United States, for "we are overwhelmingly against war," and as a nation "we are seeking no additional territory at the expense of our neighbors."

Germany Dismisses The Possibility Of An Early War

Frankfurt-On-Main, Germany.—A dismissed Germany wants peace.

Peace echoes through strident radio appeal, through headlines and newspaper propaganda. It dominates the proclamation published all over the nation with which Chancellor Adolf Hitler urged support of this policy in the coming plebiscite.

And talking to the average man one hears little of war. The possibilities of an early war are dismissed for two reasons: First, Germany realizes she would certainly be defeated, and second, the Hitler regime is only at the outset of its internal program. If he is to retain power, Hitler must Washington—President Roosevelt suddenly opened the way for relations between the 16-year-old Communist Government of Soviet Russia and the United States.

In a letter to Mikhail Kalinin, president of the Soviet Republic, Mr. Roosevelt 10 days ago invited him to send a representative here "to explore with me personally all questions of standing between our countries."

On Wednesday, Kalinin cabled acceptance of the invitation and designated M. Litvinoff, commissar for foreign affairs, to come to Washington to talk with Mr. Roosevelt. A date for the conference remains to be set.

Mr. Roosevelt emphasized that the letters simply meant what they said. "Participating in such a discussion would, of course," said the president in his letter to Kalinin, "not commit either nation to any future course of action, but would indicate a sincere desire to reach a satisfactory solution of the problems involved. It is my hope that such conversations might result in good to the people of both our countries."

In writing to the Soviet president, Mr. Roosevelt explained that he had contemplated since the start of his administration "the desirability of an effort to end the present abnormal relations between the 125,000,000 people of the United States and the 160,000,000 people of Russia."

His letter followed intensive study of the Soviet problem.

Support Stand Of Simon

Says Foreign Secretary Spoke For British Government

Liverpool, Eng.—Viscount Hallahan, secretary of war, said the government fully supports Sir John Simon in the stand the secretary for foreign affairs took on disarmament last week in Geneva.

"There is one thing I ought to say because the foreign secretary is hardly able to say it for himself," Viscount Hallahan said in a speech. "The foreign secretary, in what he did at Geneva, was not speaking personally, or individually, but as a representative of the British government with the assent of his colleagues."

Sir John and Foreign Minister Von Neurath of Germany, have questioned each other's statements as to developments at Geneva last week. Baron von Neurath maintained Sir John misrepresented the German arms viewpoint to the United States and the British have offered to publish documents to disprove the accusation.

Studying N.R.A. Plan

Irish Free State May Consider Taking Similar Steps

Dublin, Irish Free State.—The National Recovery Act of the United States is being closely studied in the Irish Free State and a move is under way to impress the De Valera government with the desirability of taking similar steps.

The Federation of Irish Industries has already prepared a report on the act for presentation to Sean Lemass, minister for industry. An official of the federation said its members had discussed the powers granted to President Roosevelt by the act and whether similar legislation might not be beneficial to the Free State.

The federation, it is stated, opposes a 40-hour week.

NOTES AND COMMENTS

TIGHTEN your belts and hang on as best you can till the depression lifts in effect the message of Premier Bennett on his visit to the west. He held out no rosy promise of any material improvement, though expressing confidence in the ability of Canadian people to weather the period of distress.

WORKERS, particularly railwaymen, whose threatened strike over a second proposed ten per cent. cut in wages is reported to have been averted through compromise, do not agree with the premier that our financial integrity with bond-holders and other investors in Canadian securities should be maintained while thousands suffer for lack of the common things. Life and the right to live they claim is of greater importance than paying interest on bonds, so that his appeal to maintain Canada's financial integrity is very cold comfort to the great majority.

THE governments of the world are faced with a dilemma. Social legislation has been carried to the point where it has become well nigh impossible to raise the money required to continue relief on the present scale. The doctrine of the survival of the fittest if allowed to prevail might result in revolution, which thinking people fully realize would be attended with serious results to many, rich and poor. The only solution appears to be a more equal division of labor so that people now idle may work. It will mean less so-called luxuries and a much simpler life in general.

THE American standard of living makes it impossible to successfully compete with countries such as Japan, which already is becoming a serious contender in manufactured goods, even to the extent of competing with Britain in heavy machinery. The cotton trade of Lancashire has suffered heavily from Japanese competition. Japan will not increase its standard of living for the common people or the wealthy classes. Japanese business men state their people maintain physical fitness on a diet which American or British people would regard as almost starvation, while the business man's pleasures are of the simple kind which entail very little expenditure of money compared with our people's requirements.

WITH a population of 65 millions, there are less motor car licenses in Japan than in the province of Alberta, and the tired business man, instead of driving an expensive car, with possibly a hired chauffeur, as in America, will take his holiday in a secluded spot or in his own garden, and rest himself thoroughly so that he will return to his business with renewed vigor.

"YOU must change your way of life" is the Jap's reply to the western world's urgings to improve his standard of living. Here is a conflict in ideals which has a far reaching effect and will continue to. The Oriental standard versus the Occidental increases the difficulties of alleviating unemployment. Tariff restrictions will be of no avail, for if we do not buy from other nations we cannot sell to them. To get even a glimpse of a solution of the problem appears a remote possibility, for an ambitious country such as Japan will certainly find an outlet for its people and its products. The invasion of Manchuria and its conquest was vital to Japanese expansion, and as time goes on undoubtedly they will seek other fields.

AN enlightened Japanese citizen, taken to task by a Canadian for Japan's aggressiveness, pointed to the map of the world with its patches of red denoting British Dominions and colonies. "That is what made the British Empire great," he said; "hasn't Japan the same right to expansion as your country or your empire?"

IT is of such conflicts and ambitions that wars arise, and how can you prevent people from trying to realize their ambitions? Here is a deep problem. The more you study it the more you feel that after all Nature or the Great Architect may have intended the rule of the survival of the fittest should prevail to maintain the balance of population, and of power of one nation over another.

THREE years of burglaries by one man who talked himself into arrest emphasizes the need for night police in town.

ATTEND NEWSPAPERMEN'S CONVENTION

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Bartlett of Blairmore and H. T. Halliwell of Coleman attended the annual convention of the Alberta division of the Canadian Weekly Newspapers Association held in the Macdonald hotel, Edmonton, Oct. 20-21. Premier Brownlee made his first public address to the newspapermen following his duties on the MacMillan Banking Commission, speaking for nearly an hour on economic and financial problems. At the banquet in the evening, the guest speaker was Dr. Wallace, president of Alberta University, and on Saturday morning, John M. Imrie, managing editor of the Edmonton Journal, spoke on his experience at the Conference of Pacific Relations, recently held at Banff, and on his visit to Japan, where he obtained many interesting viewpoints of Oriental business men, which strongly contrasted with those of the Occidental.

Sid Duncan, editor of the Crag and Canyon, Banff, succeeded D. O. Wright of the Cardston News as president. Herb G. McCrea, of the Hanna Herald, was re-elected as secretary-treasurer.

H. C. McBurney's advt. last week stated two packets of Princess Soap Flakes for 25c. It should have been two for 45c.

Printed matter of all kinds should be ordered through The Journal office. Counter check books printed to order at factory prices. Typewriter ribbons and carbon paper.

WORLD HAPPENINGS BRIEFLY TOLD

The German government has confiscated the property of the Jewish banker, Hugo Simon, who is abroad.

The Graf Zeppelin started from Friedrichshafen, Germany, on October 14 on a south American trip with Hugo Eckener in command.

Hon. Iyemasa Tokugawa, Japanese minister to Canada, is studying how trade between Japan and Canada, as well as other parts of the British Empire, can be expanded.

Sir Samuel Instone, director of the Imperial Airways, announces that Imperial Airways is actively investigating a projected trans-Atlantic air-mail route connecting with the air-mail systems of North America.

Placing of groups of families from the United Kingdom in various districts in Canada was advocated by Walter Newbold, British economist and former member of the House of Commons, in an address at Winnipeg.

Douglas Fairbanks, the American screen star, told interviewers that he had no intention of divorcing Mary Pickford, his Toronto-born actress-wife. He said any reported divorce was pure invention.

In September 100 families were moved from the drought-stricken farming areas of southern Alberta to fertile northern areas, bringing the number moved so far this year to 400, the railway systems reported recently.

"The penal system of Canada as it is now administered is a disgrace to our national life and should be swept away," declared William B. Nichol, K.C., of Kingston, Ont., former attorney-general for Toronto, speaking before the Young Men's Canadian Club at Montreal.

The cure for cancer, in the opinion of Dr. H. Beckwith Whitehouse, eminent English surgeon, will likely be preventative. "We shall probably find some chemical or animal substance to strengthen our natural resistance to cancer and, in that way, prevent it," he said.

Works Without Chestnut Tree

Baltimore Smithy Travels Country With Forge On Truck

"Under the spreading chestnut tree The village smithy stands..."

So the poet, Henry Wadsworth Longfellow in the 19th century, but not so Harry C. Greenwood, of Baltimore, Maryland, the blacksmith himself of the 20th century.

Greenwood found, what with the decline of the horse, the horse would not come to him in sufficient numbers, so now he goes to the horse with his forge mounted on a truck and sets up business with or without spreading chestnut trees.

Brilliant plans to raffle himself as a husband has gone awry for a youth in Budapest, Hungary. He proposed to sell 10,000 tickets to young women in search of a husband, and promised to marry the winner regardless of her age, looks, means or social standing. The police stopped the adventure.

Will Be Spectacular Contest

Noted Pilots To Race 13,000 Miles For Big Money Prize

Next year will witness the most spectacular event in the history of aeronautics, when world pilots will engage in a race across four continents for 13,000 miles from England to Australia for a big money prize.

Organized in connection with the Melbourne centenary celebrations, the race is expected to attract at least a score of noted pilots, who will endeavor to win the prize money of $75,000, put up by John MacRobertson, prominent Melbourne resident.

The race is to take place on Oct. 20, 1934, or thereabouts, and all entries must reach the centenary council at Melbourne by June 1, 1934. The rules stipulate that the airmen must reach Australia in 16 days or less to be eligible for the prize fund.

"Fifty thousand dollars and a gold cup worth $2,500 will be awarded to the winner of the championship race. Second and third prizes, valued at $5,000 and $2,500, will also be awarded. There will also be a handicap race, for which two prizes of $10,000 and $5,000 are offered.

Each machine must carry food and water to maintain life for three days and some approved flotation gear for the crew. This applies to both races. These rules definitely rule out light planes from competing.

Pilots in the race will have to check in at Baghdad, Calcutta, Singapore, Port Darwin and Charleville. Since most of these landing-places are 2,000 miles and more apart, it follows that aircraft competing will have to have a flying range of 2,000 miles at least to stand a good chance of being in the lead.

Transparent Only One Way

New Glass Cannot Be Seen Through From Outside

At last people may live in glass houses without pulling the shades down.

A patent has just been granted to Frederick A. Delano, head of the local park and planning commission of Washington for a glass which is transparent only one way.

A person may look through the glass from the inside of his house and see as clearly as through ordinary window panes. People on the outside, however, cannot see through to the inside. This is caused by a diffusion of light rays by means of arranging glass materials on one surface at angles.

Among other patents granted recently are a self brushing toothbrush, a calculating machine advising farmers how much grain he should feed to his cows to get the maximum output of milk, a device which would keep the hole in the doughnut, a ventilated seat cushion, and a collapsible gravestone.

The power driven tooth brush is hitched to the bathroom faucet and revolves through the force of water power.

Canada's Bituminous Sand Deposits

Field investigations by the Department of Mines appear to indicate that at least 50 million tons of bituminous sand can be mined by open cut methods in the northern portion of the province of Alberta. On a basis of 12 per cent. bitumen content this is equivalent to 80 million tons of bitumen or 450 million barrels.

Strict About Apple Shipments

As a safeguard against the export of Great Britain of apples infested with apple maggot, steamship lines refuse to load cargoes of apples from infested areas unless certified free of apple maggot by the inspectors of the Dominion Fruit Branch.

Recipes For This Week

(By Betty Barclay)

CALUMET CORN MUFFINS

- 1 cup sifted flour.
- 1 cup corn meal.
- 2 teaspoons combination baking powder.
- 1 teaspoon salt.
- 1 cup milk.
- 1/4 cup molasses.
- 1 egg, well beaten.
- 1 tablespoon melted butter or other shortening.

Sift flour once, measure, add corn meal, baking powder and salt, and sift together three times. Combine milk, molasses, egg, and shortening; add gradually and beat. Bake in hot, greased muffin pans in hot oven (400 degrees Fahrenheit) 20 minutes. Makes 12 muffins.

LAMB CHOPS WITH ORANGES

- (Serves 6)
- 6 lamb, veal or pork chops.
- Melted butter.
- Sliced oranges.
- Salt.
- Pepper.
- Paprika.

Trim fat from thick chops and dip in melted butter. Oil broiler well and broil chops 8 minutes. Turn and place a thick slice of peeled orange on each chop. Broil 8 or 10 minutes longer. Sprinkle generously with the seasonings. Serve hot.

Knew His Ancestors

During a history lesson in a suburban school, the teacher pointed out to the class that a surname often indicated the trade of the ancestors of those who bore the name. He gave the obviously simple examples of Smith, Taylor, Baker, and others.

Then he questioned one of the boys: "What were your ancestors, Webb?"

"Spiders," sir.

Golfer—I suppose you wouldn't believe I once did a hole in one?

Caddie—Hour, day, week, or hundred, sir?

SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

OCTOBER 29

WORLD'S TEMPERANCE SUNDAY

Golden Text: "Love worketh no ill to his to his neighbor, love therefore is the fulfillment of the law."—Romans 13:10.

Lesson: Romans 13:12-15:3.

Devotional Reading: Psalm 68:1-6.

Explanations and Comments

The Conduct of a Christian, 13:12-14.—"The night is far spent, the day is at hand." Paul writes. Various interpretations of this metaphor may be given. The "night" is the Lord's absence, the "day" to be ushered in by His appearance says one; the "night" is present obscurity in contrast to the eternal day, says another. "This epistle was written at Corinth, which, both as the seat of local government and because of its critical position on a strait between the two seas, must have been garrisoned by a strong military force. The image which always rises before my mind when I read the passage is that of a sentry, writing far in the night, in a tent, and in the darkness, through the night to the Christians in Rome, and just at daybreak, when the sentinels are changing guard, and the morning light glances on their armor, while at the same time the last sounds of debarbed revellers in the street fall upon his ears, expressing himself in the now familiar words, the night is far spent, the day is at hand."—John S. Howland.

Let us therefore cast off the works of darkness [some of which are enumerated in the next verse], and let us put on the armor of light. Be strong in the Lord and in the strength of His mighty power, putting on the armor of God, Ephesians 6:10-11. The description of this armor is given in Ephesians 6:12-18. See Also 2 Corinthians 6:7; 10:4; 1 Thessalonians 5:8.

You can obey the command to put on the armor of light when you have obeyed the command to put on the armor of light. Evil thoughts are driven out by first filling the mind with good thoughts.

Paul speaks of conduct as "a walk" some thirty-three times in his letters. Let us walk becomingly as in the day, he urged, and then he enumerates some of the evils which a Christian will not commit. Dr. James S. Howland bids us notice that strife and jealousy are classed with the coarse indulgence of the animal nature and make a climax; the contentious, envious man ranks with the drunkard and the debauchee.

But put ye on the Lord Jesus Christ, and make not provision for the flesh, to fulfil the lust thereof. The Great Realities, 14:7-9.—"The thought of our accountability to God alone (verse 6) brings life and death and the judgment day before Paul. In verses 7-12 he so portrays these great and inspiring realities as to make all acrimonious controversy over days and diet seem trivial and wicked."—E. J. Bosworth.

For none of us liveth to himself, and none dieth to himself. "Man's whole life belongs, not to himself, but to his Lord. It does not mean 'every man's conduct affects others for better or worse, whether he will or not,' means, 'no Christian is his own end in life; what is always present to his mind, as the rule of his conduct, is the will and the interest of his Lord.' The same holds of his dying. He does not choose either the time or the mode of it, like a Roman Stoic, to please himself. He dies when the Lord wills, as the Lord wills, and even by his death glorifies God. We must recognize the lordship of Christ, for we are His alike in life and in death, for by dying and living again Christ became the Lord of the dead and the living."

Would Mean A Saving

Twelve vacancies in the Senate now. Why not leave them vacant and gradually abolish the Senate in that way? Incidentally it may be noted that each vacant senatorship means a saving of at least $4,000 a year to the taxpayers, states Niagara Falls Review.

Precarious Travel Is Blocking Railway Sale

Japan Not Anxious To Buy Line

From Russia

"What with bandits tearing up the tracks, firing on trains and carrying away passengers for ransom, the Russians are having quite a time trying to sell the Chinese Eastern Railway to Japan. Negotiations have been going on for months. Bids and counter-bids have been offered. The great stumbling block is the precarious state of travel on the line.

In five days the track was torn up five times, trains were fired on three times, railway stations were set afire twice, railway buildings were attacked 13 times, and 150 railway employees were kidnapped.

Armed gangs attack the trains and crimes of violence are frequent. There were 76 attacks by armed desperadoes in 1930, 119 in 1931, 704 in 1932, and this year there have been 247 attacks to date.

With all these goings on, the Japanese wonder what kind of a railway they are dickering for anyway. If the gangs and bandits keep up their activities there will not be much left. It is an indication of the lawless state in Manchuria and a condition with which the Japanese have been trying to cope.—Border Cities Star.

Working For Unemployed

Women Of English Golf Club Make Clothes For Poor

Needles and thimbles displace drivers and niblicks once a week in the women's section of the North Middlesex Golf Club. For two hours each Monday women members meet to make clothes for the poor and unemployed. More than 140 new garments were made in the first fortnight. The idea for the sewing afternoon resulted from a speech of the Prince of Wales, who said, "If only every woman would work two hours a week for the Persons League what a marvellous response there would be."

Not So Healthy

"Health Week" was held in the prefecture of Hyogo, in Japan. Enthusiasm ran high and the occasion was celebrated by a public feast. Next day 1,100 people were reported to be ill from food poisoning and three have died.

A whale captured recently off the New Zealand coast had in its head a harpoon which the whalers had fired at it 15 years ago.

OCCASIONAL WIFE

By
EDNA ROBB WEBSTER
Author of "Jettie," "Lipstick Girl"

SYNOPSIS

Camilla Hoyt, young and beautiful commercial artist, and Peter Anson, a struggling sculptor, meet in an art class and fall in love. She is the adopted daughter of a wealthy family, but she is not to share in their fortune when she comes of age. They are faced with the problem of "marriage or career" and Camilla does not want to let Peter down when he has so much money. At an art school dance, Gus Matson, Peter's roommate, who is jealous of Peter's success, takes Camilla out on the lawn to tell her "something she should know about Peter." Gus tells Camilla Peter is a cheat, that he only wants her money and that he, Gus, loves her himself. At that moment Peter appears on the scene and knocks Gus flat. On the way home from the party Camilla tells Peter they are going to do something about their problem.

(Now Go On With The Story)

CHAPTER XIV.

"We are going to be married, son, Peter, darling," Camilla told him. "Why—why, honey, we shouldn't dare!" interjected. "Afraid, Peter?" "For myself? No, of course not." "For whom?" "Why—for you! I couldn't take care of you." "I shouldn't let you. I'll take care of myself—until you succeed." "I couldn't let you do that," he protested with finality. "Why couldn't you, Peter? I'll have to do that, anyway, whether I am your wife or not. Why can't I be your wife, too?" "My wife," he repeated, with awe. "You would—take that chance, dear, before I have proved to you that I can do anything worth while?" "I'd take bigger chances than that to have you and your love. Why not? Where is the risk?" "Well—suppose I failed, after all? Suppose I never really amount to much?"

W. N. U. 2017

"You would still be you," gently. "Yes, I suppose so." "Well, Peter, it's you I love and want. Nothing else makes a lot of difference to me, except that I want for you everything that you want to be, for your sake as much as mine."

"Sweetheart!" he gave her a double demonstration of his appreciation. "What a girl!" he exclaimed and laughed tremendously. She clung to him, weak with emotion and reluctant to lose the sweet ecstasy with which it filled her. She was part of the night, its beauty and silence and fragrance, in his arms with his lips upon hers.

"Don't let me go!" she whispered. "I wish I needn't—ever!" vehemently.

"Then why don't you want to marry me soon?"

"Want to? If I only dared!"

"Then you shall. And it won't make a bit of difference to either of us, financially. We shall live just as we had planned before we met."

"But I can't even provide you a decent place to live," he helplessly.

"You won't need to. I just told you that we'll live exactly as we had planned before, except that we shall belong to each other."

"You mean—not even live together?"

"That would be fatal to your work, Peter, and the last thing we should think of doing. I shouldn't consider living with you until you are established. You must not think of taking on the responsibility of keeping me until then. But that need not keep us from finding a little happiness."

"That isn't the way it should be," he objected.

"You are so stubborn, darling," she sighed. "Not the way it should be, but better than no happiness at all. Better than waiting for years—and years—" wistfully.

"You almost convince me," he drew her close again, eagerly. "Are you sure you won't regret it? I can't tell you how much it would mean to me."

"You needn't, because I know. But I'll marry you, Peter, only on my terms—that you are to assume no responsibilities whatever, and that we shall live apart until you can afford to take care of me. It is in your work I am thinking of, Peter."

"More than of me?"

"Of course not. After us, but it means everything to us, doesn't it?"

"That's right."

"Suppose we had to wait five years—ten—to have each other—for love—with one long embrace, she says him a first voluntary kiss before she continued, "just because of a few stupid dollars that we should need, to live together in the regular way that convention follows."

"I know, I suppose it would be impossible, anyway," he admitted. "Why are not children? You are almost twenty-one and I am twenty-five. Camilla. We should know what we want to do. But if you insist upon taking care of yourself, why not combine like other fifty-fifty marriages?"

"Too many of those fail, Peter. No, if we marry, our problem is solved. It is an individual solution. When a girl tries to be a business woman, a wife and a housekeeper, she almost always fails in one of the three, and that one is usually in being a wife. It would be even worse for a man like you."

"In the first place, you would work alone and have more time to brood over trifles. You are sensitive and would feel your responsibility more than the average man. If we lived together, your studio would have to be our home. When I rushed off to my office-hour job and neglected anything, you would feel that you should do the work because your work tied you to no definite hours. More and more, you would become the mat at home wearing the apron and feeling sorry for your tired working wife. No, Peter, it never would do for us to live together until you have made good."

"How can you be in love and yet so practical?" he wondered with tender amusement.

"That's not being as practical as it sounds," she laughed softly. "Most of all, I want to keep the romance of our marriage. Peter. We can just go on being lovers—having the excitement and expectation of seeing each other after days of separation. Our holidays—they will be such happy holidays when we are together for a little while. And those hours together will be so much more precious to us housekeeping problems and worries. We shall meet and part as strange lovers. Won't that be much more romantic?"

"But the parting?" he objected.

"You're not a bit like Romeo, are you? You know he said that parting is such sweet pleasure."

"What did he know about it? He when they are not crowded with never parted from you."

She laughed happily and they kissed again. Presently, she said slowly,

OLD PEOPLE FEEL YOUNG

Just because more years than you care to count have fled by on your life's calendar is no reason for feeling old. Age, after all, isn't a matter of years. It is a matter of health. Stay vigorous and you stay young. That's how you stay. Do it the way thousands of people of advancing years do. Take Vincarnis regularly. Vincarnis is a delicious wine, free from drugs, that brings you all the valuable elements of grapes combined with the highest grade beef and guaranteed malt extract. Its invigorating effect is almost magical—yet perfectly natural.

These valuable elements in Vincarnis give your aging system exactly the stimulating nourishment it requires. They soothe your nerves, enrich your blood and food your whole body with almost youthful buoyancy and vigor. More than 20,000 medical men have heartily endorsed Vincarnis. It is a great tonic. It will make you feel young again by creating for you new stores of strength and energy. Get Vincarnis from your druggist—Sales Agents: Harold P. Ritchie & Co. Ltd., Toronto.

"There's another thing about our waiting for years and years to marry. Do you remember what you said that first night we talked together, about wanting a thing so intensely and so long that finally when you could have it, you didn't want it?"

"Why, Camilla, you don't mean that we could change our minds over; about wanting that thing?"

"It could happen, Peter."

"Oh, sure, even lots of people who marry, change their minds about each other afterward. But not us."

"But that isn't what I mean, dear. I don't think we ever could do that. If we have each other and share everything as we go along, we shall develop together. But if we have to live on hope alone and go our separate ways, I may drift apart in our interests—well, and find that we are not what we each wanted. There's a phrase running in my mind that someone wrote. 'The sickening pang of hope deferred.' Doesn't that sound ominous?"

"Whatever it is, we are going to take no chances with it," Peter declared.

"But, say," she held him off suddenly. "I'm doing all the arguing about this. It sounds as if I were trying to make you marry me against your will."

"Darling, you know that isn't true. You are only convincing me that you are willing to take a bigger chance with me than I have any right to ask of you. Yet I am selfish enough to love you better than anything in life," he told her tenderly.

"Because you love me better than anything in life," she corrected him.

THE OLD ASSURANCE

Till winter's chill
White fingers still
The bloom and song of earth,
No heart can guess
The loveliness
Of summer's lyric mirth.

Until love knows
Nobody knows
What light it gave the days,
What charm it lent
What best content
It shed on all life's ways.

Yet, sweetest, though soon
The flowers of June
In fragrant dust must lie,
Clings close, dear near,
And never fear
Our rose of love can die.

Launching Hunt For Fortune Of Castaway Messages In Bottle Picked Up At Sea Afford Only Clue

Two messages and a map in a bottle picked up on a lonely beach on the coast of Mexico have brought George P. Bradley to Washington to organize an expedition to seek for buried treasure.

The messages tell of a Robinson Crusoe castaway; Chinese pirates; shipwreck; escape with the treasure; the wait for death on a South Pacific tale.

So far, Bradley has found four people who are willing to take a chance on there being a buried loot on the other side of the world, and have signed up under Bradley as an expedition.

The first message, dated August 18, 1897, reads:

"To whoever finds this which I am about to put into the sea—help! I am cast away on an island whose latitude is (deleted by Bradley) and longitude (deleted by Bradley)."

"For three years I have been a prisoner of Chinese pirates, who have raised several pestilence and other vessels and have accumulated a vast amount of wealth, which I have saved from the wreck and buried under a rock on the south end of the island under a cross, over $400,000 worth of gold and silver coins and a stone jug over half full of pearls. Eleven perfect black pearls of immense size and 143 others that are over one-half inch in diameter. The rest are smaller."

"I am all alone and cannot live much longer. So I only ask the finder to give one of the black pearls and $10,000 of the money to my little daughter, Nellie Farley, who lives there with a Mrs. Susan McCarty, in Stockton, Cal. Find her, please, and the rest is yours, and may God bless you."

"JAMES FARLEY."

"Aug. 18, 1897."

The second letter, with a map reads:

"There is no water on this island, which is very small, and I have no hope for myself, but please help my little girl when you get what I have hidden."

"Many other valuable things are buried nearby. There are letters with the money that will tell you all."

"Thank God my sufferings are over."

Bradley says he has had the writing tested by a chemist in the Carnegie Institute of Technology, Pittsburgh, Pa., who found it to be the juice of a tropical tree.

Wales Wants Canadian Cattle

Fortnightly Service Of Cargoes To Cardiff Is Advocated

A determined attempt is being made to revive Cardiff's import trade in Canadian cattle and to secure a regular fortnightly service of cargoes into the city.

During June a consignment of 540 beasts from Ontario and Saskatchewan arrived, and most of them were sold by private treaty. Donald Munro of Montreal, who handled the business, said that Cardiff was finely adapted to deal with this traffic and as distributing centre not only for South Wales, but also for the Midlands and the south and west of England.

At present the only extensive imports of cattle from Canada are those into Glasgow and Birkenhead. If the new venture succeeds, the ships bringing the cattle will be loaded with South Wales products for the Canadian market.

Describes New Discovery

Oil Is Almost Pure Vitamin "A" States Its Maker

A new, pale yellow oil, 9,200 times more potent than ordinary cod liver oil, was described to the Ohio-Michigan section of the Chemical Society.

The oil is almost pure vitamin "A," said its maker, Prof. Harry N. Holmes, of Oberlin University. It represents America's stake in an international scientific race to be first with isolation of vitamin "A," the disease-resistant builder.

At the university of Zurich, Dr. Karrer has produced a similar oil, 10,000 times as powerful as cod liver oil; while three Englishmen have reached Vitamin "A" concentrations almost five, 6,500 times and 800 times stronger than the fish oil.

Professor Holmes gets his near-vitamin "A" from halibut liver oil.

"A really good poker player can make a lot of money apart from his ordinary work," he was told. This is the first time we knew that a really good poker player needed to have any ordinary work.

Quick Relief Now From Neuralgia

JACK, IN ORDER TO GET THAT BIG ORDER IN 40 MINUTES AND I HAVE TERRIBLE NEURALGIA... WHAT CAN I DO?

DON'T WORRY! GET SOME ASPIRIN. TWO TABLETS WILL STOP THAT PAIN IN A FEW MINUTES.

WELL, JACK, I GOT THE ORDER! YES, I GOT IT AS A PIDDLE.... YOU BET, I ALWAYS GET ASPIRIN WORKS BEST! QUICK RELIEF FROM PAIN.

Real ASPIRIN Starts Taking Hold in Few Minutes

Now comes amazingly quick relief from headaches, rheumatism, neuralgia, . . . the fastest safe relief, . . . the most powerful . . .

These results are due to a scientific discovery by which an Aspirin tablet begins to dissolve, or disintegrate, in the amazing space of two seconds after touching moisture. And hence to start "taking hold" of pain a few minutes after taking.

The illustration of the glass, here, starts to disintegrate almost instantly you swallow it. And thus is ready to go to work almost at once.

When you buy, though, be on guard against substitutes. To be sure you get ASPIRIN's quick relief, be sure the name Bayer in the form of a cross is on every tablet of Aspirin.

WHY ASPIRIN WORKS SO FAST

Drop an Aspirin Tablet in a glass of water. Note that BEFORE it touches liquid, it has started to disintegrate.

What it does in this glass it does in your stomach. Hence its fast action.

New Zealand Citizens Accomplish Big Task

Have Rebuilt City Of Napier Destroyed By Earthquake

On February 3rd, 1931, the City of Napier, in New Zealand, was completely destroyed by an earthquake which brought its buildings down in piles of wood, brick and stone.

Its 21,000 odd inhabitants, who had just begun to experience the benefits of settlement in one of the Dominion's latest towns, were ruined, their houses and their means of earning a living being swept away simultaneously.

Earthquakes and fire demolished both public and private buildings. The Sunday after the quake a great public service was held in the open air at which the citizens of Napier pledged themselves to rebuild their city.

Today they have accomplished their self-appointed task. Upon the ruins of the old Napier a new city has arisen, the newest city in the world. Wide thoroughfares accommodating four lines of traffic; public buildings of the most up-to-date character; new factories, banks and hotels are to be seen on every hand. And the new city has been built with an eye to harmony of architectural design and with the object of associating the highest sense of security with a high standard of town planning.

Narrow back streets have been eliminated. Telephone, telegraph and power standards have vanished from the streets into conduits. Napier stands today a credit to the indomitable spirit of the people of New Zealand and a model for others to copy.

As they are busy building cities within the Empire. Town planning, well directed and controlled did it. —Montreal Star.

Legend Of A Jewel

Famous Koh-I-Noor Diamond Has Strange History

The legend that if a British king ever wears the Koh-I-Noor diamond, India will be lost forever to the British Empire, is related in "Jewels of Romance and Renown" by Miss Mary Abbott.

When the gem, said to have adorned the sword of the warrior Afrasiab in 3,000 B.C. was given to Queen Victoria after the annexation of the Punjab in 1850, the East India Company hinted that they would like her to wear it as a piece of her personal jewellery rather than in the crown jewels.

So Queen Victoria bequeathed the Koh-I-Noor, not to her son, King Edward, but to his wife, Queen Alexandra, and gradually the legend grew up that if a king-emperor wore the jewel, India would be lost to the British Empire forever.

Clearly dropped by a voyager more than a century ago, a copper coin or token struck in the year 1816 in honor of Sir Isaac Brock, has been recovered from the river bed of Belleville. The token was in perfect condition, having been well preserved in the silt at the bottom of the stream.

The King and Queen, who have so many tasks in common, do not share the same views about long train journeys. Her Majesty is said to dislike travelling by night, while the King considers it waste of time to travel in the daytime.

Little Helps For This Week

"God, even our Father, who has loved us and given us everlasting consolation and good hope through grace, comfort our hearts and establish us in every good word and work."—2 Thessalonians 2:16, 17.

When sorrow all our heart would ask, We need not wait our daily task, And hide ourselves for calm; The herbs we seek to heal our woes Familiar by our pathway grow, Our common air is balm.

—J. Kehle.

When we turn away from some duty or some fellow creature saying our hearts are too sick and sore with some great yearning of our own, we may sever the line on which a divine message was coming to us. We shut out the man, and we shut out the angel who had sent him to us. The door, there is a plain working in our lives, and if we keep our hearts quiet and our eyes open it all fights together; and if we do not it all fights together and keeps on fighting till it comes right somehow, somewhere. —Anne Keary.

Mail Stolen From Liner

Three Registered Sacks Disappeared Between New York And Plymouth

Three sacks of registered mail, said to contain several thousand dollars worth of negotiable bonds and other securities, were stolen while the new United States liner "Manhattan" was on high sea, federal authorities admitted. The loss was discovered when the Manhattan, which left New York September 13, arrived at Plymouth, England, on September 18. The missing sacks were part of a shipment of 180 sacks. These sacks were consigned to England, Holland and Poland.

Retail merchants in the city of Lethbridge do not set a good example to the smaller centres of southern Alberta in deciding to open their stores on Armistice Day. The statutes of Canada provide that the day shall be observed as a holiday—not half a day.

UNITED CHURCH NOTES

At the morning worship, Sunday, Oct. 29, the junior choir will lead the singing and render a special selection. Mr. Taylor will preach on the subject "Providence or Design?" The following questions will be asked: "Is it true that what is to be will be? Are we the mere puppets of chance and circumstance? What is the Christian's answer to these questions?" Come and hear this sermon. You will be helped.

Sunday school at 12.15. At the evening worship Rev. J. H. Matthews of Michel and Natal will conduct the service and will render a solo. Mr. Matthews is a fine singer. You will enjoy both his spoken message and his message of song. Join in these services of worship.

On Monday night Oct. 30 at eight o'clock the newly-formed Men's Brotherhood will meet in the hall. This organization is inter-denominational and every man who is looking for fellowship and service is most cordially invited to attend.

Through the kindness and interest of United church ministers in the Pass towns, entertainments have been held at the relief camp west of Coleman, which have been appreciated by the men. It is reported there are some good singers among the men employed there.

Rev. John Wood of Bellevue took the services at Macleod on Sunday and the Rev. Mr. Elliott of Macleod took the Bellevue United church Thanksgiving services.

Mr. and Mrs. Cousins of Winnipeg are the guests of their daughter, Mrs. A. S. McLintock, and Mr. McLintock.

MISCELLANEOUS

Skiing and sleighing provided plenty of exercise for younger people during the past week. With temperatures ranging to four below zero, and plenty of snow, it appeared for several days that winter had come to stay, but on Tuesday the temperature quickly rose from four above zero at 7 a.m. to over 40 above by noon, with an increase during the afternoon, which melted a lot of snow.

It is intimated that two relief camps will be established, one near Frank and one near Bellevue, to construct a new road through the slide. Each camp will have accommodation for 125 men, and will be under the control of the Department of National Defense. It is probable that Project 38 west of Coleman will be discontinued during the winter, and the men transferred to other camps. It will be resumed in the spring, as this terrific under construction is one of the important links in the trans-Canada air route. The work at Bellevue and Frank will be officially known as Project 122.

Looking over our splendid assortment of Christmas Greeting Cards, you will be impressed with the charm they may hold and the pleasure your friends will experience in receiving them. It costs only a small amount to send your greeting on a personal card, yet how much it is appreciated by the recipient.

They may be obtained for personal use as low as $1.50 to $3.00 a dozen, up to $16.70 per 100, with envelopes to match ready to mail, your name and address being neatly printed on the cards.

Special Cards for Business Men

For business use this form of good-will advertising is more widely used each year. Fifty cards may be obtained for as low as $4.00, up to $90 for $2.75. A telephone call or post card will promptly result in a sample book being left at your home or office so that you can make a selection best suited to your requirements. — The Journal Office, Telephone 69.
